

Kaplan International Center

Harvard Square

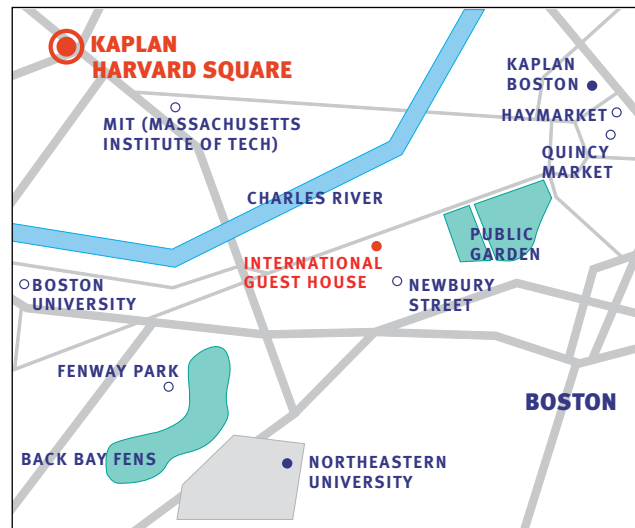

The city of Cambridge lies just across the Charles River from Boston and is home to two of the world's most prestigious academic institutions: Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) and Harvard University, the oldest university in the US. We are right in the heart of this prominent intellectual city, within walking distance of both Harvard and MIT. Our center offers up-to-the-minute facilities including a computer center, free internet access and spacious classrooms. Harvard square and it's surrounding streets are lined with bookshops, boutiques and numerous open-air cafes where students can read, play chess or enjoy being entertained by visiting street performers.

We are looking forward to seeing you at the Harvard Square center and we are sure that you will enjoy your studies in Cambridge. Students come to our center for the scholarly atmosphere of studying close to so many great institutions and for our intimate setting that allows the students to really connect with their teachers and staff. Students here also have access to an extensive library of structured study materials, which include practice TOEFL® exams and ELLIS, the premier pronunciation software package for English language learners.

Local Information

Transport - buses and trains

The Massachusetts Bay Transit Authority (MBTA) is an extensive transportation system that encompasses the majority of the Boston and Cambridge area. The Cambridge center is conveniently located one block away from the Harvard Square stop on the red line. From there, students can connect to Boston’s Logan International Airport, and North and South Stations, which house the commuter rail trains that can take students as far as Providence, Rhode Island and to Northern Massachusetts.

Banks and Post Office

There are banks located steps away from the center and the post office is directly across the street.

Department stores and supermarkets

There are several department stores within walking distance including The Gap, Pearl’s Arts and Crafts, Foot Locker, as well as Urban Outfitters, the Harvard Book Store, The COOP at MIT, Ben & Jerry’s Ice Cream, Newbury Comics, The Adidas Store, Crate and Barrel, CVS pharmacy, the Brattle St. movie theatre and the Kendall Sq. Cinema, and many small boutiques and independently owned stores.

Cambridge is world renowned for great local grocers with an assortment of fresh, organic foods at reasonable prices. There are two natural food supermarkets within a 5-minute walk from the center. Harvard Square also has a lively marketplace with an atmosphere wonderfully conducive to the art of shopping.

Telephone and Internet Café

The Kaplan International Center provides students with wireless internet and nearby cafés and bookstores also have wireless internet capability.
